The American Association of Immunologists

Working for You! AAI Membership Benefits

The mission of The American Association of Immunologists (AAI) is to advance the knowledge of immunology and related disciplines, foster interchange of ideas and information among scientists, and promote understanding of the field of immunology. AAI offers regular, trainee, and emeritus membership.

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Membership in the largest and most prestigious professional association of immunologists in the world. Over 6,500 AAI member-scientists are working together to advance immunology research as well as on issues that affect their lives
- A subscription to The Journal of Immunology; includes print copy and on-line access to every issue from the oldest in the archive to the most recent
- NO submission fee for manuscripts sent to The Journal of Immunology
- REDUCED color figure charges! Significant savings for members!
- Eligibility to serve on the Editorial Board of The Journal of Immunology
- Reduced subscription rates to 16 optional journals
- Membership in the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology (FASEB) and in the International Union of Immunological Societies (IUIS)
- Personal copies of the AAI Newsletter and on-line access to the FASEB Directory of Members
- Eligibility for AAI Awards and service on AAI committees
- Voting privileges in AAI elections and actions
- REDUCED registration rates at AAI meetings and courses
- Effective representation! Your views and concerns on research funding and science policy are brought to Congress and federal agencies by professional staff and member-driven committees.

QUALIFICATIONS AND APPLICATION FOR REGULAR MEMBERSHIP 2007 MEMBERSHIP YEAR

The American Association of Immunologists (AAI) is a professional organization whose members have a strong interest in, and have made substantial contributions to, the science of immunology. AAI is a member of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology (FASEB) and is responsible for the publication of The Journal of Immunology. To be eligible for election to membership in the AAI, a candidate must meet one of the following criteria:

1. Possess a Ph.D., (or equivalent graduate degree, e.g., D.Sc.) in immunology or related disciplines, or an M.D. (or equivalent medical degree, e.g., D.D.S.) and be the first author of one significant original publication on an immunological topic in a reputable, English language refereed journal. Manuscripts "in press" are acceptable when accompanied by a letter from the publisher or Editor-In-Chief of the journal affirming its acceptance and imminent publication. Abstracts and unpublished papers will not be considered in evaluating whether a candidate meets the publications requirement for membership. *
2. Be an established scientist with substantial achievement in a related discipline and have at least one collaborative paper on an immunological topic in a reputable, English language refereed journal.

 These requirements may be waived under exceptional circumstances if a candidate shows evidence of other appropriate training and/or substantial research accomplishment.*

THIS APPLICATION PACKAGE MUST INCLUDE:

1. A current copy of your curriculum vitae including bibliography.
2. A copy of the title page of a first author publication that meets the criteria.
3. The name and signature of an active AAI member as your reference.

FACULTY POSITIONS IN CELLULAR AND MOLECULAR IMMUNOLOGY

The Immunology Program at the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute and the University of South Florida's College of Medicine, Department of Interdisciplinary Oncology, are seeking highly qualified (PhD or MD) applicants for tenure track positions in Cellular and Molecular Immunology at Assistant, Associate and Full Professor levels. While applicants in all areas of Cellular and Molecular Immunology may apply, we are especially interested in individuals with molecular approaches and signal transduction mechanisms related to studies of T cells, chemokines, and the tumor microenvironment. Successful applicants will be expected to develop an outstanding research program in their area of interest.

Assistant Professor must have at least four years of postdoctoral experience in tumor immunology and high quality publications in peer-reviewed journals. The Associate/Full Professor must have a proven track record of independent research and demonstrated sustained extramural funding. In addition, the Associate Professor rank requires at least five years of experience with continuing and productive service as an Assistant Professor. The Professor rank requires documentation of national recognition, leadership ability and at least five years of experience with continuing and productive service as an Associate Professor. Salary is negotiable.

The Moffitt Cancer Center and Research Institute provides an exceptional environment for basic and translational research in Immunology, Molecular Oncology and Drug Discoveries. Extensive state-of-the-art core facilities are available for flow cytometry, gene profiling, proteomics, mouse model development, high throughput screening/chemistry, and drug discovery. Successful applicants will be provided generous laboratory and office space in the new Vincent A. Stabile Research Building.

Please reference position 11851. Send curriculum vitae and a brief statement of major academic interests in one single pdf document to The Immunology Search Committee at koransky@moffitt.usf.edu. Application review begins December 1, 2006. Applications will be accepted and continuously reviewed until the position is filled.

USF Health is committed to increasing its diversity and will give individual consideration to qualified applicants for this position with experience in ethnically diverse settings, who possess varied language skills, or who have a record of research that supports/benefits diverse communities or teaching a diverse student population.
